

Thailand offers the adventurous honeymooner a wild, unspoiled retreat to explore at will. We recommend that you extend your holiday to fully experience this magical country.

Limestone cliffs, white powdery beaches, tranquil broad bays and tropical inland forests combined with world class hotels and sophisticated restaurants give Thailand the justly deserved sobriquet of the Pearl of the Andaman. Rejuvenate in a seaside bungalow, spending day after sunny day on the beach in near-perfect tranquility. Shop for fashion and artifacts at malls and quaint flea markets. And discover a serene underwater paradise.

BANGKOK

Locally known as Krung Thep or City of Angels, this truly is a vibrant city, with its heavenly flavors, sights and experiences that seduce all who visit. Bangkok balances its exuberant modern development with a reverent celebration of traditional Thai culture - most evident in the glorious wats and the extraordinary food. Bangkok has long been a hub for travellers, offering a winning combination of reasonable prices and excellent tourist amenities.

PHUKET

One of Thailand's best known holiday destinations, Phuket's greatest attractions are its beaches, fabulous swathes of golden sand which can compete with the best around the world. There are some sensational coral reefs, home to tropical fish of various kinds, which provide excellent snorkeling and diving opportunities. Phuket Town has some fascinating temples and Chinese colonial buildings worth exploring.
